

Senator Bill Heath

Senate District 31

Senator Bill Heath was elected to the Georgia State Senate in 2005 after having served one term in the Georgia House of Representatives. He serves as Chair of the Retirement Committee, Secretary of the Science and Technology Committee, and a member of the Finance and Transportation Committees. In 2006, Governor Sonny Perdue recognized Sen. Heath's ability as a lawmaker by appointing him as Administration Floor Leader in the Senate.

Senator Heath graduated from Bremen High School and Southern Tech with a BEET degree. He is self-employed as both an engineer and farmer with Design Specialists and B&S Farms. He served on the West Georgia Regional Airport Authority for approximately 10 years ago.

Senator Heath and his wife Susan have two children, William and Sandy. They attend Abilene Baptist Church where Senator Heath is a Deacon.
